To improve market transparency and to provide stakeholders with meaningful information, Expana is requesting feedback on the following proposed changes to its Brazilian Beef Exports to China market coverage.

The following items will be added:

Item	Reason
Robbed Forequarter Robbed Hindquarter	These cuts that were being redirected to other destinations due to weak pricing in China are once again offering these cuts to the Chinese market as prices have shown some improvement, leading them to regain interest in trading these items.

Stakeholders can provide input on the proposed changes during a comment period which will take place from August 28, 2024, to September 11, 2024. Remarks will be published on Expana's market reporting methodology page at www.expanamarkets.com/our-methodology will be amended to reflect these changes.
